Out of the sum annually appropriated as a civil contingent fund, there may be paid all expenses incurred in the execution of any law for which there is no special appropriation, and any other sums which the governor may deem necessary or proper. No payment shall be made out of the civil contingent fund except on the requisition of the governor directed to the auditor. Governor is given no power to make requisition for insurance on capitol and state library. — The governor's order does not bind or authorize the auditor to issue his warrant for the payment of insurance charges on the capitol and state library to be paid out of the civil contingent fund. Shields v. Bennett, 8 W. Va. 74 (1874); overruled on other grounds, Simms v.

Sawyers, 85 W. Va. 245, 101 S.E. 467 (1919).

Issuance of warrant on unauthorized requisition will not be compelled. — Where the governor has no authority to make the requisition, a court will not compel the auditor to issue the warrant. *Shields v. ### § 5-1-19. Temporary loans.

The governor may raise, from time to time, by temporary loans, not having over eighteen months to run, nor bearing a greater interest than two cents per hundred dollars per day, so much as may be needed to supply the wants of the treasury.
